What it Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Opposite the Normandie

THE NORMANDIE WILL NOT OPEN

In View of the Fact That We Are Going to Have So Many Hotels.

The parties who proposed to open the Hotel Normandie have been negotiating for several days to secure a 50 foot frontage on South Elm street, next to the government court square, and their plan was to erect there a modern five story building to run back and connect with the Southern Loan and Trust Company building, the two wings to form one building. The owners of the property on South Elm street were disposed to lend their co-operation to the plan, but because of the heavy outlay necessary for the conversion of this South Elm street property, and in view of the fact that Greensboro has prospective three new hotels, and that the supply of hotel accommodations is likely to exceed the demand, the promoters of the Normandie enterprise have concluded to abandon their plan, and the Southern Loan and Trust Company will proceed with its original plan and make of its new building the most complete office building in the state. A representative of the Hotel Normandie Company went to Charlotte today and made a satisfactory arrangment with Mr. Frick, who has been employed as manager.

While the carrying out of the plan of the Hotel Normandie would have meant much for Greensboro, it would seem that we are going to be well provided in the matter of hotels. The purchasers of the Benbow Hotel property state they will begin at once the erection of a modern hotel on the present site. An experienced hotel man who is a resident of Greensboro and a large property owner here, states that within sixty days he proposes to begin the erection of a large hotel here. The proprietors of the McAdoo House also state that they expect to have an addition of 75 rooms to their accommodations.

It may be best for Greensboro after all that the original purpose of the Southern Loan and Trust Company building should be carried out, and that it should be used as an office building.

Notice to K. of H.

At a meeting of Guilford Lodge No. 1777 Knights of Honor Wednesday night it was decided to hold the regular meetings of the lodge on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights in the future instead of the 1st and 3rd Wednesday nights as heretofore. There will be a special meeting next Tuesday night and every member is urged to be present. The benefit certificates, 59 of which have been received, will be delivered. Those who cannot attend the meeting can get their certificates by calling on J. G. Fowler, Director, at Cartland's.

The Committee's Problem.

The street committee, with Mayor Taylor and Supervisor of Streets Bandy, met today on South Elm in front of J. M. Hendrix & Co.'s store, to devise some means to prevent water standing on the street at that place. During the heavy rain last night water rose above the sidewalk on the east side of the street, and how to arrange a drain is a difficult problem. It is probable the committee will decide to provide more manholes and put in pipes along the curbing.

Attention, Firemen!

A regular meeting of the fire department will be held in firemen's hall on Tuesday night, 11th inst., at 8:15 o'clock. Let every member arrange to be present. Only a few more days in which to get ready for the tournament. By order of

THE WHEELS OF INDUSTRY

OUR FACTORIES ALL BUSY

Greensboro's factories were never more busy than at present. Every wheel in every shop is turning and the products of the factories are daily leaving the city in car load lots, or being delivered to purchasers in the city as fast as it is possible to turn them out. There could be no better sign of prosperity. Greensboro is making things.

The Sergeant Manufacturing Company, founders and machinists, are pushing work on two of the celebrated Sergeant saw mills for shipment to South Carolina and Gibson Station, N. C. They make specialties of saw mills and the Sergeant window weight, both of which are protected by patents and both of which have big sales.

The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company are now working more men and operating more machinery than ever before They have an order for several car loads of lumber for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston; one for ten car loads of building material for a Durham contractor; one for material for fourteen new houses in Durham and a large order from the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum at Raleigh. In addition to these a big order for doors for a government contract, was received from Washington this morning.

The Greensboro Sash and Blind Company also have a number of good orders and are working as fast as possible. They have the contract to furnish 131 window frames for the Van Deventer Carpet Company's new factory building here and also one to furnish material for four stores and a banking house at Thomasville. They are furnishing the lumber for several houses here and have a number of smaller orders for sash, doors, blinds, etc.

The Telegram has made mention of several large orders received by firms in Greensboro recently and a little investigation shows that all the factories have more orders than they can well fill.

Some of the old factories have recently been enlarged and others are now proposing to build additions, while the building of new ones is almost continually going on.

ROAD BUILDERS' INSTITUTE.

Program of the Meeting at Charlotte Next Week.

The first session of the road builders' institute for the Carolinas will be held at the court house in Charlotte at noon Tuesday the 11th, when a welcome will be extended to the visitors. Tuesday afternoon will be given to the discussion of the road building problems as they have been met and solved in Mecklenburg county. Tuesday night there will be an illustrated address on the "Construction, Repair and Benefits of Good Roads," by Mr. M. O. Eldrige, assistant director in the office of road inquiry at Washington. Wednesday will be spent in examination of the Mecklenburg macadam roads.

Thursday will be devoted to an examination of the streets and sidewalks of Charlotte, where several kinds of work will be seen in progress. It is hoped that the city engineers and superintendents of street work from the various towns in both the Carolinas will make a special effort to be on hand during this day. The session of the institute Thursday night will be devoted to a discussion of special problems connected with street and sidewalk improvement and the relation of these problems to the improvement of public roads in the country districts. The program for the remainder of the session will be published at an early date.

Machine Shop to Be Added.

At a meeting of the directors of the Eagle Foundry Company held Wednesday it was decided to put in a complete modern machine shop in connection with the other work done by the ocumpany. The new machinery will be purchased at once and installed ready for operation within thirty days. The company will manufacture woodworking machinery and other specialties.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., July 7.

Mr. Henry E. White, of Union Springs, N. Y., and Miss Bessie M. Meader, of this city, were married at the home of Dr. J. E. Cartland's on Green Street last night. Rev. W. A. Kelsey, of High Point, was the officiating minister. The friends of the happy couple, and they are many, will wish them much happiness in their life of companionship.

The Eagle Furinture Co. shut down yesterday and day on account of lack of material with which to work.

We were glad to have Editor Robt. M. Phillips, of the Greensboro Evening Telegram in our city this morning. He is a clever man.

We hear that one of the boys who ran away a week or so ago is on his way back home. We thought, when he left that he would not stay long. His pal however, has more grit in his craw and from reports is now in the state of Kentucky.

There will be no services at the Episcapal church to night owing to the sickness of the pastor, Dr. Davis, as was announced in yesterday's paper.

Mr. Elwood Cox and family, E. E. Snow and Dr. J. J. Cox left for Alantic City, N. J., today.

Miss Julia Gastil, accompanied by Miss Stella Scroggs, whom she has been visiting, left for her home in Salisbury this morning. Miss Scroggs will visit her grandfather who lives near Statesville.

Miss Minnie Smith, of South McAlister, Indian Territory, arrived in the city yesterday. She is at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Donahue Smith's. Miss Smith will make High Point her permanent home.

Have you seen that "talking sign"-slight of hand performer in the front window of H. Harris and Bros. clothing house? He's a "talker."

A rather queer case came up before justice W. B. Steel last right. It seems that a section master by the name of Lassiter, who works on the Ashboro division of the Southern Railroad had hid away a crow bar in one of the lumber piles of the Globe furniture company's yard along the railroad sometime ago, as section masters generally hide such things for conveinence, and on passing this factory the other day happened to see the bar which had been removed where he left it, and took it home. Suit was at once instituted against him for the act and the trial was for last evening. It was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

The Globe furiture company is advertising for working men today as a result of the majority of the employees of this factory stopping work yesterday, the cause of which appeared in Thursday's paper.

Several of our citizens will go to the mountains by private conveyance first of next week. They will touch at Piedmont Springs, Blowing Rock and other points.

THE ARMY APPOINTMENTS.

DEATH OF BISHOP NEWMAN

Received In Washington With Profound Regret—Was Formerly Chaplain of Senate.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 7—Much interest is felt in southern democratic circles in relation to the coming appointments of officers in the increased army. During this week there have been many Southern Representatives and senators at the white house, as reported, in the interest of southern officers in the volunteer army who wish promotions to the regular army. Senator McLaurin's visit to the white house was highly satisfactory to the senator, as was also the visit of representatives Bankhead, and other southern congressman. It is the President's purpose, as he stated to Senator McLaurin on the occasion of his visit to divide the appointments among the different states, giving a captain, and first lieutenant to each state, of the Union. All officers to grades above captain, according to the present intention of the President will be filled by promotions from the regular army. There is a great demand for the commissions of second lieutenant. Many applications for appointments to this grade have beenfiled with the president by the southern congressmen. The president in his conversation with Senator McLaurin, and southern representatives announced his intention to pick out for these commisions young men who have secured good records in the service in Cuba, and the Philippine Islands. In selecting the men the records obtained whether they are officers, or privates, will count for more in securing these appointments than will the recommendations of senators, representatives, or other political influence which may be brought to bear. The policy of the president as mapped out regarding these army appointments will give, it is thought general satisfaction to the southern congressmen, and it is certain the south will obtain its full share of the commissions.

Representative Henderson, the probable speaker of the next house of representatives, has kept himself very quiet since his arrival in Washington. He is stopping at the Normandie hotel, and is accompanied by his wife and daughter. He has received many of the representatives, including several democratic members from the south, who are now in the city, and who called to offer their congratulations to the next speaker, whom they all admire and respect notwithstanding party differences. Col. Henderson has refused to be interviewed upon political matters since his arrival in Washington, though he has received many of the newspaper men of the national capital. On Thursday he called at the white house and held a conference with the president, it is presumed in relation to matters which are expected to come before the next congress. The Colonel and family will leave here Friday evening for Boston, after which he will go to some pleasant summer resort on the New England coast.

The death of Bishop Newman, of the Methodist Episcopal church is received in Washington with profound regret. For three times he was pastor of the Metropolitan church, one of the largest churches of the Methodist denomination in this city, and for several years he was chaplain of the United States Senate. Since his entrance into the pastorate, the scene of the most fruitful part of his eventful life has been at the national capital, and in New York City. There is a movement to hold memorial services in honor of the dead Bishop at some future date at the Metropolitan church. These services, however, will probably be deferred for some time, as the church is now away on his vacation.

Among Virginia people in Washington is Congressman Epes who is here for the purpose of looking after the proposed improvements to the Appomatox river. The surveys have been made, and an appropriation recommended by the war department, but nothing can be done until the meeting of congress.

Mr. W. W. Rockhill, chief of the Bureau of American Republics and family will spend the summer season at Barkeley Springs.

Mr. Henry Gregory, of Southern Pines, North Carolina is in the city for a few days stopping at the St. James Hotel.

Mr. J. W. Clark, of Asheville, and Mrs. J. B. Lichty, of Oakville, North Carolina are also at the St. James Hotel.

MOST NARROW ESCAPE.

The Ex-King's Cloak Was Perforated Twice.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Vienna, July 7—A dispatch from Belgrade says that in the attempt at the assassination of Ex-King Milan yesterday, the assailant's first two bullets perforated the ex-king's cloak. Another grazed his epaulette. Adjutant Lubie, who was struck by the fourth bullet which seriously wounded Milan, jumped into a carriage and drew his sabre and pursued the would-be assassin through Kalameyden park. The man being hard pressed, jumped into the river to save himself. Gendarmes put out in boats to arrest him. The prisoner was formerly a member of the fire brigade, but was recently dismissed.

A FIREMAN KILLED

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Kansas City, July 7—A passenger train on the Burlington road was wrecked about midnight near Waldron. A special train bearing surgeons was sent from this city to the scene of the wreck at one o'clock this morning. No details have been received.

LATER REPORT.

Kansas City, July 7—Fireman Weltz was killed and five or six passengers seriously injured in the midnight wreck. A heavy rain washed out an hundred and twenty feet of the track.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

The Mother Dead By Her Unharmed Infant.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Butler, Pa., July 7—In an electric storm here today Mrs. Jona Toy, the wife of a farmer, was killed by lightning which shattered the tree under which she had taken refuge from the rain. Her baby, lying near her, was not harmed. Two hours later when the husband approached, he found the two nestled, apparently comfortable, at the foot of the tree. The baby was fast asleep by its dead mother.

FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1899.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.

The model for the monument to North Carolina's most revered son, Vance, has been selected by the Vance Monument Association, which has been inspecting the several models submitted by several sculptors at Raleigh. The Morning Post describes very interestingly the design which has been selected:

The committee had little difficulty in making a selection.

It would have been hard, however, had not the committeemen jointly talked the matter over before going into committee meeting, as there was one model (that of W. S. Dunbar, also of Washington) which closely competed with the one selected, and it took the several committeemen some time and necessitated several visits to the third floor of the Citizen's Bank building, where the models were on exhibition, before the conclusion was reached.

The Dunbar model hair, eyebrows and expression of countenance were preferred, as being more like the original. That was the general verdict of all who knew Senator Vance, especially while in the United States senate, and who examined the models.

But the figure, its proportions, and the pose especially, of the Ellicott model, was undoubtedly the best of the two—and that, of course, means the better one of the whole exhibit

It is understood that the sculptor selected will put a head and expression of countenance on his figure that will compare favorably with the Dunbar model.

Then we will have almost a perfect representation of Zeb Vance, as he stood (and as the writer has seen him stand scores of times) in the senate of the United States, with his left hand resting on his desk, while he, erect and magnificent in figure, held his eyeglasses half-extended in his right hand.

The moment is during a pause—a restful pause—while delivering one of the many really great speeches he made while in the senate, and looking directly at the president of the senate.

The model could hardly be improved upon; however much pains were taken by the artist or money spent by the people of the state who mean to thus honor his memory.

The monument will have been completed and placed at the eastern gate of the capital by May 1, 1900. It will cost $7,000 and will be a beautiful and lasting tribute to the memory of the state's most loved son.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler, the old ex-rebel, is making preparations to leave Washington tomorrow for San Francisco, where he will be transported to the Philippines. He is delighted, of course, at the prospect of again smelling burnt powder. To a reporter he said: "I shall place myself at the disposal of Gen. Otis and endeavor to do my duty as a soldier." We would that General Otis could be placed at the disposal of General Wheeler. We are sure he is the better commander.

We think it's time to let up on the poor doctors about this smallpox business. They've had enough. The following cruel thrust is taken from the Danville Farrago:

We feel sorry for one unfortunate man in the pest house. The doctors think he has the smallpox. But the truth is, it is the seven-year itch just developing. The unfortunate suspect will have to remain there during all those years.

If Secretary Alger would act with as much promptness, wisdom or common sense upon every matter receiving his consideration that he showed in replying with relief to the appeal of the governor of Texas, he would do much toward mitigating the general storm of cussing which sweeps his way occasionally.

The wild and woolly west sustains its calamitous reputation. The recent terrible flood and cyclones, incurring a great loss of life and prodigious destruction to property, have laid down another awful record.

Every community should be represented at the Charlotte road convention next week. The subject of better roads is daily becoming more deeply interesting to the people of North Carolina.

RESPONSE TO CRY OF DISTRESS.

War Department Orders Supplies and Rations For the Hungry.

Washington, July 6—The war department today promptly responded to an appeal for aid in behalf of the flood sufferers in Texas. The action of the department was based on the following telegram from the governor of that state:

Please immediately order by wire boats at Galveston to ascend rivers, using launches and yawls to rescue people from the waters which are widespread over the lands of the lower Brazos. Please also order commanding officer at San Antonio to place at my disposal for immediate distribution 10,000 rations. Will recommend the legislature to refund to the United States their value when it next meets, and do not doubt that it will be promptly done. Devastation great. Immense loss of life probable. Prompt action very important. Answer.

Joseph D. Sayers, Governor.

Secretary Alger sent this reply to Governor Sayers:

"Chief of engineers will order all boats available at Galveston, and commanding officer at San Antonio has been directed to place at your immediate disposal ten thousand rations and to confer with you as to points of delivery."

Washington, July 6—The government will do everything in its power to aid the Texas flood sufferers. The war department ordered all available boats at Galveston to the scene, and the commanding officer at San Antonio was directed to place 10,000 rations at the governor's disposal. The secretary of the treasury ordered for use of Texas officials all surf boats at the Galveston life-saving station. Late this afternoon another telegram was received requesting an additional supply of rations, and orders for distribution of 10,000 more were issued. Further supplies will be ordered if needed.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Saunders, writing from Cocoanut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

"De mos' desir'ble things ob dis worl' ", says Brother Watkins, "am al'ays de furdest out ob reach. De smalles' and skinnyes' pullets roosts neares' toe de do'."

There is a time for all things. The time to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers is when you are suffering from constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, indigestion or other stomach or liver troubles. They never gripe. Howard Gardner.

"Cholly's dead. Cigarette killed him." "I thought it was a dynamite cracker." "Yes; but he lighted the cracker from a cigarette he had in his mouth."

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

A Sarcastic Congressman.

"Judge Martindale has recalled the time when I was the very youngest and very smallest elder, which reminds me of an occurrence at Washington when a number of very anomalous bills for public improvements were introduced. I decided to veto some of them. I remember that there was a New York representative who had an interest in an appropriation of $250,000 for a public building on the Hudson. A friend learned from him that it had been vetoed. 'See the president,' suggested his friend. The representative responded that that was his intention, and next day went to the White House, where he was informed by the secretary that the president could not be seen. 'Good gracious!' exclaimed the representative. 'Has he got so small as that?' "

Cornish Diamonds.

"Please God," said Aunt Mary Bunny, "if I live till this evenin and all's well I'll send for the doctor."

"I shan't name no names," said Uncle Billy, "but Jack Tremenheere's the man."

John Carter, the famous smuggler of Porthleah, went throughout Cornwall by the name of the King of Prussia. A Mousehole man, on hearing news of the real king of Prussia's defeat at Jena, remarked: "Misfortunes never come single. I'm sorry for that man. Not more'n six weeks ago he lost 300 keg o' brandy, by information, so I'm towld."

All the crew had been saved, but one poor fellow was brought ashore unconscious. The curate turned to the bystanders:

"How do you proceed in the case of one apparently drowned?"

"S'arch his pockets."—Cornish Magazine.

Willow Baskets.

The question is sometimes asked why some willow baskets soon become brown and discolored while others keep white so much longer. Those that discolor are made from willow from which the bark has been removed by steaming. The imported baskets, made where labor is not such a big factor in cost, are woven from willows that have been peeled with knives, and these hold their clean white color to the close of their existence, which is a much longer period than that of the domestic product. If one only knew how to distinguish "t'other from which," now!

In celebrating the Fourth in 62 of the principal cities of the nation, three persons were killed and 1,074 were injured, and losses by fire aggregated $159,105.

W. M. Gallagher, of Bryan, Pa., says: "For forty years I have tried various cough medicines. One Minute Cough Cure is best of all." It relieves instantly and cures all throat and lung troubles, coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, la grippe and pneumonia. Howard Gardner.

Ex-Governor W. J. Stone, of Missouri, denies that he will be appointed to succeed Senator Jones as chairman of the national democratic committee.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this remedy in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The wealthy American girl doesn't stop at building a castle in the air; she goes after the heir in the castle.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

"Goodness! it's raining," exclaimed the left-over rocket, "and here I've got nothing but a stick with me."

RUNNING SORE ON HIS ANKLE.

Obstinate sores and ulcers which refuse to heal under ordinary treatment soon become chronic and deep-seated, and are a sure sign that the entire circulation is in a depraved condition. They are a severe drain upon the system, and are constantly sapping away the vitality. In every case the poison must be eliminated from the blood, and no amount of external treatment can have any effect.

There is no uncertainty about the merits of S. S. S.; every claim made for it is backed up strongly by convincing testimony of those who have been cured by it and know of its virtues by experience.

Mr. L. J. Clark, of Orange Courthouse, Va., writes:

"For six years I had an obstinate, running ulcer on my ankle, which at times caused me intense suffering. I was so disabled for a long while that I was wholly unfit for business. One of the best doctors treated me constantly but did me no good. I then tried various blood remedies, without the least benefit. S. S. S. was so highly recommended that I concluded to try it, and the effect was wonderful. It seemed to get right at the seat of the disease and force the poison out, and I was soon completely cured." Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—drives out every trace of impurity in the blood, and in this way cures permanently the most obstinate, deep-seated sore or ulcer. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains not a particle of potash, mercury, or other mineral. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Catarrh, Eczema, Rheumatism, Sores, Ulcers, Boils, or any other blood trouble. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

A TWO HOUR BREAKFAST.

There is a place in New Orleans that strangers are always glad to have pointed out—Begeuy's, over in the French quarter, kept by Mme. Begeuy (pronounced Bigaay, with the accent on the last syllable), and famous for the breakfasts it serves at 11 o'clock every morning.

Originally this breakfast was intended for the butchers, and they contributed to it the daintiest meats that the splendid French market in New Orleans provided from day to day. Gradually outsiders began to come in, and now one must engage a seat at breakfast two days ahead.—The morning the writer was there a distinguished judge of the supreme court was the principal visitor, and he, with his family and several guests from Boston, sat at the head of the table.

One long table occupies the little dining room, to which one climbs by a rickety flight of stairs. Every Frenchman, when he gets up, takes a cup of coffee and a roll, and at 11 o'clock eats his real breakfast. This is the meal that Mme. Begeuy serves, and it costs $1. The kitchen is right off of the dining room, and there is no pretense of adornment. Everything is as plain and simple as it can be, excepting the food, and this is the perfection of the gastronomic art. A bottle of claret stood at each place, which, with water imported from Germany and called "blue label," was all there was to drink until the little cup of black coffee finished the repast.

The first thing served was duck. It was excellent, and so was everything else included in the eight or nine courses that came on, and that concluded, singularly enough, with liver, so cooked that the only regret was that the piece was not larger. It takes two hours to eat a breakfast at Begeuy's, and you get enough to last you for all day.—Leslie's Weekly.

A GRIM CEREMONY.

An Emperor's Death Hastened by Rehearsing His Own Funeral.

Emperor Charles V of Spain brought about his death by rehearsing his own funeral. For the last two years of his life, after resigning the scepter of Spain and the Netherlands to his son Philip, in 1556, Charles retired to the monastery of Yuste, in Estremadura, and there lived a cloister life in close intercourse with the monks, devoting much time to religious exercises. During this period, prompted it may be by the example of Cardinal de la Marck, who for several years before his death, in 1528, had annually rehearsed his own obsequies, the emperor, in the summer of 1558, formed the resolution to celebrate his own funeral before he died.

Accordingly, on Aug. 30 of that year, the grim farce was carried out with the most elaborate ceremonial. The imperial domestics marched with black tapers in their hands, and the emperor, clad in sable weeds, himself followed, wearing his shroud. While the solemn mass for the dead was sung before the high altar in the cathedral Charles gave up his taper to the priest, typifying thereby his resignation of life, and was solemnly laid in his coffin. The ceremony closed with sprinkling holy water on his body; then, all the attendants retiring, the doors were shut, and Charles rose from his narrow bed and withdrew to his private apartment.

The damping of the graveclothes induced a chill, which, aided no doubt by the mental depression caused by the grewsome ceremony, induced a fever which ended in his death three weeks later, on the 21st of September, 1588.

A Missing Link.

It will doubtless surprise many who have never even heard of the brute that there still exists on the island of Java an animal, or rather a reptile, which seems to be the missing link between the ichthyosauri of prehistoric days and the well known saurians of modern times.

This animal is known to the Javanese as "linguin." It fell to the luck of Baron Alfonso Pereira, consul general of Austria-Hungary, to shoot one of these beasts some years ago. Its length was between nine and ten feet, and it looked a cross between a snake and a crocodile. Though the beast was cut and wounded in its encounter with Baron Pereira it did not bleed.

Pennsylvania Sand Mines.

There are all kinds of mines in Pennsylvania. The greatest are of course the iron and coal mines, but few people would guess that the next extensive mining industry is the sand mines in western Pennsylvania. These mines are rarely underground, however, and many of them are viewed with wonder by passengers on the Pennsylvania, approaching Pittsburg. Whole mountains are being dug away, and the granular rocks forming them are being reduced to sand for the manufacture of glass in and about Pittsburg.—Philadelphia Call.

The Omnipresent Rose.

Every continent on the globe, with the exception of Australia, produces wild roses. There can be little doubt that the rose is one of the oldest flowers in the world and, perhaps, grown from the wind blown seeds in Paradise.

In Egypt it is depicted on numbers of early bas-reliefs, dating from 3000 to 3500 B. C. Rosewater, or the essence of roses, is mentioned by Homer in the "Iliad," and the flower is spoken of in the Proverbs of Solomon.

Lamblike Resignation.

Charles Lamb, when reminded by his sisters of the days when they were poor and capable of enjoying the smallest treat with the keenest relish, so different from the days when they were rich and surfeited, said, "Well, Mary, since we are in easy circumstances we must endeavor to put up with it."

What is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure? It is the newly discovered remedy, the most effective preparation ever devised for aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, and restoring the deranged digestive organs to a natural condition. It is a discovery surpassing anything yet known to the medical profession. Howard Gardner.

At Canada Lake, N. Y., LaFayette Vanderpool tried to save his adopted daughter, Miss Morey, from drowning and both perished.

Infrequent and Improper Shampooing

are responsible for dry, scrawny and variable colored hair. Many people have a goodly supply of hair, and it would be beautiful were it not that dandruff had destroyed its life and made it lustreless. Everyone's head should be shampooed once a week with some non-injurious and health-giving wash.

The Sapphire Country.

Along the cool southern slopes and table lands of the Blue Ridge mountains in Western North Carolina, at an average altitude of 3,000 feet, is a country full of delightful surprises to the tourist, sportsman and health-seeker. No other state contains so many clear, cold and wonderfully picturesque streams, so many grand water falls, such wide sweeping mountain views, and such beautiful lakes as the Sapphire Country, where until recently there was no provision made for the accommodation of visitors to this delightful section. Now, however, entertainment is offered on Lake Sapphire, Lake Fairfield, and on the summit of Mt. Toxaway, the view from the lodge there being the most extensive of any mountain point of vantage in North Carolina.

Parties desiring to visit this beautiful country can purchase round trip tickets to Brevard, N. C., via Hendersonville, where coaches convey you over good roads making the drive one of extreme pleasure. For full information call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent, Charlotte, N. C., or W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, Washington, D. C.

A Cheap Trip to the Pacific Coast.

The National Educational Association meeting at Los Angeles, Cal., is the occasion for the Southern Railway to put on the remarkably cheap rate of One Fare for the Round Trip (plus $2 00 Association Membership fee). This, in connection with the new Palace Tourist Sleeping Cars, operated over the Southern Railway and the Southern Pacific, a double berth in which costs only $7.00, renders possible the cheapest and most enjoyable trip of the season. A particularly pleasant feature of this trip is that the tickets are good going one way and returning another; i. e., going via New Orleans and returning through Salt Lake City and Colorado; or by the payment of $12.50 additional, the trip may be made returning through Portland, Ore.

Stop over privileges are allowed at El Paso or any point west thereof, on the going trip, and at any point west of Denver and Colorado Springs on the return trip. By this means passengers are afforded the opportunity of seeing the entire Pacific Coast. Side trips are arranged at nominal cost from Los Angeles and San Francisco to all points of interest in California. Further information may be obtained from any agent or representative of the Southern Railway, or from

The Wilmington excursion promises to be a delightful event. Leaves Greensboro next Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. and returns the night of the 13th. Aren't you going?

Warehouse property pays the best rental of any property in the city; why not take a slice and bring more trade to Greensboro and help sustain the progress we are making.

A new warehouse will increase the tobacco sales in Greensboro at least 1,500,000 the first year, and turn loose $125,000 00 more money to the trade of our town. A good thing, why not push it.

The central committee for the tournament held a meeting in Capt Ellington's office this morning to rearrange the appropriations made several days ago. Other matters of importance were discussed.

The work of rebuilding Taylor & Jone's stables, which were destroyed by fire some time ago, has been begun. The new building will be of brick, much more substantial and larger than the old one. It will be for rent.

After the death of Adolphus Wagner, the young man killed on the Southern's yard yesterday, his watch was removed from his pocket. The time indicated was 12:12, the exact moment the engine struck him. According to this he lived 58 minutes after the accident.

KISSING BUG IN GREENSBORO.

Attacks a Young Gentleman While He Slumbers.

The melanolestes picipes, that late, highly scientific, nocturnal-prowling insect which has caused much comment from scientists, which has bitten over 300 persons in Washington recently, and which now turns to the south, has made its appearance in Greensboro, true to the prognostication of the Telegram a few days since. Mr. Arthur Pearce, an employee in Daniel's bicycle store here, was bitten upon the lip by the bug a night or two since. His lips were greatly swollen for a day or two, but the swelling subsided without further trouble. It is said that the kissing bug is harmless, but there is something slightly uncanny about its visitations.

A Word to the Wise.

The property owners on West Lee and South Elm streets have been trying for some time to get the city to do a little work on the above named streets, but for some reason the board of aldermen seem not to know us. It might be to their interest to cultivate our acquaintance if they wish the bond issue to carry.
